

MICRO NEWS UPDATE – 5 April 2020

Looking after each other during the COVID-19 pandemic

The JAAG Committee trust that all our JAAG Members and families are well and staying safe during these uncertain times of the Corona pandemic.

These are certainly challenging times for all of us and it is important to look after each other and, as always, our community.

We have an ever-growing list of businesses that continue to trade along Fitzroy Street, in innovative and creative ways by offering take-away, which is listed by clicking here.

In our precinct Staples, at 181 Fitzroy Street, also offers a new delivery service if you require dairy products, fruit & vegetables as well as some bakery items and freshly made sauces simply access their website www.staple.melbourne

In Wellington Street we have Sam's Corner Store offering take away and the Bagel shop is still open for bagel and coffee. Fuji Tei, the Japanese café at 17 Wellington Street is offering take-away.

To help you and/or your business navigate assistance packages that are offered by the Federal Government should you require it click here, including a newly created nationwide job portal called Job Active

State Government Assistance

City of Port Phillip Assistance

One of the positive things to come out of these challenging times is the rapid growth of the sharing community and our ability to amplify what other people are doing for each other. If you have services to offer please let JAAG know and we will share them with our Members.

As always for all the news and updates go
